

Hi Julie,

■

Fun Things You Should Know About Your New Home!

Welcome to Washington, Julie! With endless natural beauty and some of the nicest folks around, Washington State is great for all types of people. Families, young singles, city-slickers and country lovers can all find a little slice of Washington that feels like home. From the oceans to the peaks or the deserts to the rainforests, you'll always find something new to explore. We can't wait to share all this state has to offer with you! Here are some fun facts about your new home that will help you learn what we're all about and fit right in as a Washingtonian.

State Capital: Olympia. Biggest City: Seattle. State Nickname: The Evergreen State. Population: 7.7 million people. State Flower: Coast Rhododendron. State Tree: Western Hemlock. State Gem: Petrified Wood. State Bird: Willow Goldfinch. State Motto: "Alki" meaning "Bye and Bye" in Chinook, a local native language. Sports Teams: Mariners (Baseball), Sounders (Soccer), Seahawks (Football), Kraken (Ice Hockey), Storm (Women's Basketball). Weather: Misty and cloudy on the west side, sunny and dry on the east side.

There are so many fun facts you'll learn about our state over time. Did you know it's the only state named after a US President? There are 3 National Parks in Washington: Olympic National Park, Mount Rainier National Park, and North Cascades National Park. We love apples more than any state, grow some sweet tasty onions in Walla Walla and even have a cherry named after Mt. Rainier- the tallest mountain in Washington.

Have any questions about Washington or what it's like to live here? Reach out any time! We're here to help!
