

Hi Julie,

Things to Do in Washington in the Summer

Summer in Washington State is all shine. The weather averages from the low-70's to low 80's in Western Washington and mid-70's to low-90's in Eastern Washington. Low humidity and clear skies make days perfect for adventure and nights perfect for bonfires. With the sun setting close to 9pm, you'll have plenty of daylight to try each of the activities below!

Relax at the Beach

Washington State has 3,026 miles of coastline and over 8,000 lakes. Although you won't find salty shores in the eastern part of the state, there are plenty of rivers and ponds to cool down in! If you're adventurous, rent a kayak, paddleboard, or motorboat for some action on the waves. Make a splash at:

- Golden Gardens Park
- Pacific Beach State Park
- Seabrook Beach
- Granite Point
- Boulder Beach

Crabbing, Shrimping and Fishing

Our vast waterways also provide us an abundance of fresh food that has been part of natives' diet for centuries. Purchase the correct fishing license from the Department of Fish and Wildlife and try your hand at catching your own dinner!

Visit the San Juan Islands

These islands that sit just west of Bellingham and Mount Vernon are world famous for Orca sightings. While you have the option for a day trip, we recommend staying overnight in a small BNB to get a real feel for the natural beauty surrounding you. Spend your days whale watching and your evenings sampling local cider over great food.

Go Camping

There's nothing quite like waking up to the sound of birds chirping right outside of your tent, at the base of a trail that leads you to incredible views. Luckily, Washington State is full of these types of campsites! Some are family friendly with drive-up parking and some require a several mile hike to nestle down at the edge of an alpine lake.

What will you do with all the extra hours of sunshine this summer? Have any questions about Washington or what it's like to live here? Reach out any time! We're here to help!
